A.J. Beatty & Sons: This glass factory evolved out of the Steubenville Flint Glass Works, Steubenville, OH in 1863. In 1888, the company opened an additional facility at Tiffin, OH, and continued to operate both factories for a while. GLASS INSULATOR MANUFACTURERS (For a general overview about glass electrical insulators, please check out my webpage here. On this webpage I've compiled a list of glass insulator manufacturers — factories that made (or are believed to have produced) glass electrical insulators. Although primarily listing factories that were located here in the United States of America, I'm also including ...Root Glass Company Terre Haute, Indiana (1901-1932) The marks "R.G.CO." and "ROOT" were used by Root Glass Company. Both marks were frequently embossed rather lightly on the base, or along the lower heel of bottles, and sometimes the lettering is almost illegible. Root produced a very wide variety of soda, mineral water and beer bottles as well as fruit jars. Nationwide Motorhome and RV Windshield Replacement Company .
